

Thomas Bosse , Head of Programmes

Thomas is an experienced project manager and team leader with many years of international working experience in managing projects in the fields of energy, environment, sustainability and climate change.

His primary focus areas are renewable energies, energy efficiency, wastewater treatment, waste management, environmental planning, and low carbon technologies.

Thomas has extensive experience in developing and marketing new business areas with a special focus on emerging markets. He holds a Dipl.-Wirt.-Ing. (M.Sc. in Industrial Engineering) from Flensburg University, Germany.