

Moamen Younis , Operations Director

Moamen Younis is the Operations Director of Dubai Carbon. He is an experienced and detail oriented engineer with strong experience in engineering management, subsidiaries and portfolio operation management, government relations, stakeholder management and coordination, project management, energy strategy, business development, and computer telecommunications. He is a team worker able to work on his own initiative and manages workload efficiently whilst presenting information clearly and concisely. He is also an excellent communicator at all levels within an organization. Moamen holds a Bsc. in Computer Engineering from the University of Mosul.