

Musad Afzal, Junior External Relations Officer

Musad is a junior external relations officer who assists in the marketing, branding, and communication of Dubai Carbon's various projects and products. With a degree in marketing and management from Heriot-Watt University and experience in marketing and communications, Musad takes precedence in the value of awareness through media and education. In his free time, he is an avid Chelsea fan, a test cricket junkie, and a lover of realistic fiction.